The Honorable Mike Johnson
Speaker of the House
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

The Honorable Steve Scalise
House Majority Leader
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

The Honorable Hakeem Jeffries
House Minority Leader
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Speaker, Mr. Majority Leader, and Mr. Minority Leader,

We write as an informal group of 218 organizations and individuals who are scholars, religious and secular leaders, human rights advocates, and practitioners to express our gratitude for your continued support of the United States Commission on International Religious Freedom (USCIRF). Established by the International Religious Freedom Act of 1998 (IRFA), USCIRF plays a vital role in promoting religious freedom globally and advocating for those facing persecution or discrimination based on their beliefs.

We, the undersigned, were pleased to see H.R. 7025 – The United States Commission on International Religious Freedom Act of 2024, introduced by Rep. Chris Smith and Rep. Anna Eshoo, advance from the House Foreign Affairs Committee. We are now writing to urge you to ensure that this bipartisan legislation is swiftly brought to a vote and passed by the House of Representatives, allowing USCIRF to continue fulfilling its crucial mandate. With limited time before USCIRF sunsets at the end of September, it is imperative that H.R. 7025 be scheduled for a final vote immediately so it can proceed through the Senate and be signed into law.

From our various experiences, we've seen the Commission play a vital role as a pillar of U.S. foreign policy infrastructure by reporting on those around the world who suffer for their beliefs, conscience, or religion. Robust reporting products, advocating for prisoners of conscience, and resources such as a database of prisoners of conscience and victims of persecution are essential tools used by civil society advocates to advance this fundamental human right.

Reauthorizing the USCIRF is not only a matter of principle but also a meaningful step towards fulfilling our nation's promise to uphold this fundamental human right.

Thank you for your attention to this critical matter.

Sincerely,
